

Durham County Republican Party 2010 Convention

with special guest speaker Justice Paul M. Newby

As we begin this very important year, we are reminded that all politics is local. One of the most important civic duties for all Republicans is to attend their local Republican Party convention. At the 2010 Durham County Republican Party Convention, we will be electing delegates to the 4th District and North Carolina State Republican Party Conventions, meeting with Republican candidates for local, state, and national office, and preparing for the busy election year ahead. We are excited to have as our guest speaker Justice Paul M. Newby of the North Carolina Supreme Court. The Durham GOP Precinct Development Committee will also be holding precinct training sessions to help train local Republicans to organize for victory.
